

Cover Girl Branded Jewelry By Verigold

NEW YORK, May 1, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Today, Verigold Jewelry announced that they have signed an exclusive licensing agreement for Cover Girl branded jewelry with Next Step Group. The mission of Cover Girl is to provide young fashionistas a trusted fashion brand they can depend on for design & style inspiration.

Jatin Shah, COO of Verigold Jewelry, said, "We are very excited about the Cover Girl brand because it appeals to a wide-ranging demographic of women in the United States. We have developed several collections for these fashionistas and are actively working to place each exclusive collection with a retailer."

Eddie Tawil, CEO of Next Step Group-Cover Girl Fashion Brands, said, "We are very pleased to welcome Verigold to our exciting array of licensing partners. We look forward to a long term successful relationship."

About Renaissance Jewelry New York (dba Verigold Jewelry)

Renaissance Jewelry New York (dba Verigold Jewelry) is the US division of Renaissance Jewellery Ltd. (RJL) based in India and publicly traded on the Indian Stock Exchange (BSE: RJL). It has been in the business of manufacturing studded fine jewelry for over 20 years. For more information, please visit www.renjewellery.com.

About Next Step

Next Step Group is a holding company that has owned the Cover Girl fashion brand for over 20 years, and is expanding the Cover Girl fashion brand throughout multiple categories.

SOURCE Renaissance Jewelry New York