Freedom of association is a fundamental right in India, guaranteed under the Constitution, which allows employees to form unions and associations to protect their interests, and employers to form associations. For companies in India, this right is primarily regulated by constitutional provisions, statutory labor laws, and upcoming consolidated labor codes.

Key Applicable Regulations and Laws

Constitution of India (Article 19(1)(c)): Guarantees all citizens the fundamental right to form associations, unions, or cooperative societies.

Trade Unions Act, 1926: The primary legislation governing the registration, management, and rights of trade unions.

Industrial Disputes Act, 1947: Governs the resolution of disputes between employers and employees and recognizes the role of unions in collective bargaining.

Industrial Relations Code, 2020 (Upcoming): This code, once fully in effect, will replace the Trade Unions Act, 1926, and introduce formal concepts like "negotiating unions" or "negotiating councils" based on membership percentage (51% or more for sole representation).

State-Specific Legislations: Certain states have specific laws, such as the Maharashtra Recognition of Trade Unions and Prevention of Unfair Labour Practices Act, 1971 and the Kerala Recognition of Trade Unions Act, 2010.

Key Principles and Obligations for Companies

Right to Form and Join: Workers have the right to form and join unions of their choice without previous authorization or fear of intimidation.

Non-Interference: Employers must not interfere in the formation or functioning of employee unions and must respect their rights to collective bargaining.

Recognition of Unions: While the Trade Unions Act does not explicitly mandate union recognition, the Industrial Relations Code, 2020, will formalize the process of identifying a negotiating union or council.

Unfair Labour Practices: Employers are restricted from discriminating against workers for union membership, including dismissals or retaliatory actions.

Freedom of Association Policies: Many companies in India adopt specific "Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining Policies" to ensure compliance with International Labour Organization (ILO) standards and UN Global Compact principles.

• ADDENDUM

• FAQs

1) What is considered sexual harassment?

Sexual harassment can include (but is not limited to) any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behavior(whether directly or by implication), such as -

- An unwelcome act of inappropriate physical intimacy, like grabbing, brushing, touching etc.
- An unwelcome remark with sexual connotations, like sexually explicit comments or compliments / jokes with sexual connotations/ making sexist remarks etc.
- Sharing of any sexually explicit visual material, in the form of pictures / cartoons / screen savers on computers /any offensive written material or sms's /WhatsApp messages / pornographic e-mails, etc.
- Engaging in any other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature, which could be verbal, or even non-verbal, like staring to make the other person uncomfortable, making offensive gestures, kissing sounds, etc.
- Making an unwelcome demand or request (whether directly or by implication) for sexual favours from another person

Policy Document	Policies	Rev. No. 01
Doc. No. RENAISSANCE GLOBAL LTD-001		Date: 02-03-2026

- A superior requesting or implying a request for sexual favours from a junior in return for advancement or benefits or negative threats whether direct or implied.
- A person in power making intrusive inquiries or references about the private lives of employees, or persistently asking them out
- A group of workers joking about sexual conduct (even amongst themselves) in an attempt to humiliate or embarrass another person
- Acts or conduct by a person in authority that renders the environment at workplace hostile or intimidating to a person belonging to the other sex

Please remember that in cases of sexual harassment, the intent of the perpetrator is irrelevant; and it is the impact on the aggrieved person that is considered pertinent.

1. What should I do if I think I am being sexually harassed?

Please let an IC member know right away. Unfortunately, ignoring sexual harassment does not make it go away. Please read the policy on workplace sexual harassment and make a written complaint of the behaviour.

2. Can I make an anonymous complaint?

No. RENAISSANCE GLOBAL LTD will not be able to investigate complaints anonymously, as the identities of both the victim and the alleged perpetrator, as well as any witnesses, are critical to a fair and impartial enquiry. Please bear in mind that RENAISSANCE GLOBAL LTD will protect the confidentiality of all parties involved as prescribed under the law, and will also treat retaliation as a serious offence. So make your complaints officially and without any fear.

3. I'm being harassed by someone who is not an employee, but who visits RENAISSANCE GLOBAL LTD to conduct business. Is there anything I can do?

Yes, you can report the issue as Sexual Harassment. The policy applies to the extended workplace, as well as situations involving an external stakeholder.

4. Will my complaint be treated confidentially?

RENAISSANCE GLOBAL LTD will make every practicable effort to handle inquiries, complaints and related proceedings in a manner that protects the privacy of all parties.

Each situation is resolved as discreetly as possible, with information

Policy Document	Policies	Rev. No. 01
Doc. No. RENAISSANCE GLOBAL LTD-001		Date: 02-03-2026

shared only with those who need to know in order to investigate and resolve the matter. The organization will be sensitive to the feelings and situation of the alleged victim and anyone who reports sexual harassment. However, the organization will need to address the issue and try and get as much information as possible while keeping the information confidential. All employees are also constrained to follow confidentiality to the maximum possible extent.

5. How will a false allegation of sexual harassment be handled?

When someone intentionally reports information or incidents that they know to be untrue, or lies to make a claim, or makes a malicious complaint, or provides false or forged documents during a complaint or an inquiry; it is considered a fraudulent claim. Strict Disciplinary action may be imposed on individuals who make false allegations of sexual harassment upon enquiry of the same. Failure to prove a claim of harassment is not equivalent to a false allegation.

6. What if a visitor to the office, a woman, feels / is sexually harassed by an employee?

Protection under this Act applies to all women in workplaces. Therefore, even a visitor or customer to the office is covered under the law. If you are told of any such incident or complaint, please report the matter to a member of the IC or HR immediately.

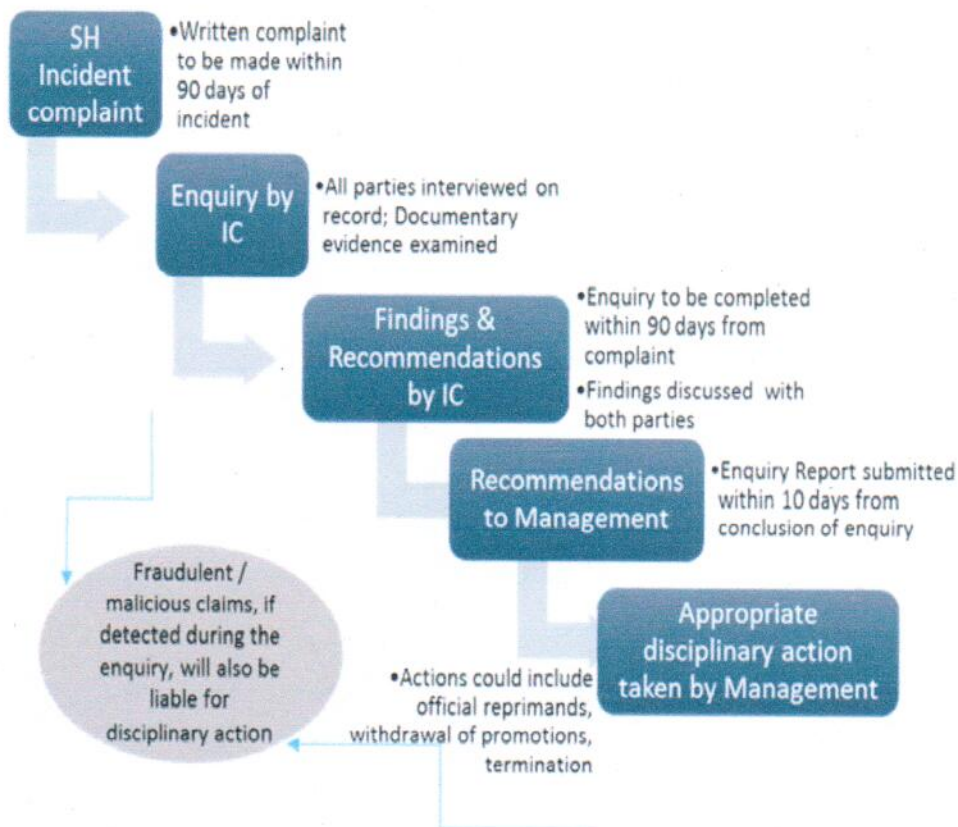

7. What else can I do?

- Feel empowered to set your own boundaries. Say "NO" emphatically and clearly when you are asked to do things, go places, respond to questions, or engage in situations that make you uncomfortable. Do not worry about offending the other person or damaging relationships. Take care of yourself first and ensure you communicate directly and clearly if you are uncomfortable with any inappropriate behavior.
- Be aware of situations and people around you. Don't ignore other's warnings about particular people or locations or social settings.
- Trust your own instincts about possible danger. In an uncomfortable situation remove yourself from the situation immediately. Regardless of your previous behavior or signals, you have the absolute right to halt any inappropriate or unwelcome exchange at any time.

8. THE REDRESSAL PROCESS – EXPLAINED.

EMPLOYER GUIDELINES : RENAISSANCE GLOBAL LTD is committed to providing a safe and respectful working environment and a harassment-free atmosphere. By means of this policy and other measures, it shall:

1. Ensure the communication of this policy, and any other relevant information, to all its employees.
2. Organize workshops and training programs at regular intervals for sensitizing the employees regarding the provisions of the policy.
3. Provide necessary facilities to the IC for dealing with complaints and conducting inquiries.
4. Assist in securing the attendance of respondent and witnesses before the ICC and make available any information the IC may require in conducting its enquiry.
5. Provide assistance to the aggrieved person if they choose to file a complaint in relation to the offence under the Indian Penal Code
6. Where sexual harassment occurs as a result of an act or omission by any third party or outsider, RENAISSANCE GLOBAL LTD shall take all steps necessary and reasonable to assist the affected person in terms of support and preventive action.
7. In case the degree of offence is deemed coverable under the Indian Penal Code, then appropriate action shall be initiated by the Management, for making a Police Complaint.
8. Encourage all its vendors and other relationships to be compliant with the Act, and communicate RENAISSANCE GLOBAL LTD's commitment to a harassment-free workplace both officially and informally to all its vendors.
9. To take such actions based on the findings and recommendations of the Internal Committee (IC) as per the Act.
10. Proffer protection against retaliation to complainants, witnesses, committee members and other employees involved in prevention and complaint resolution.

Interim Reliefs To The Complainant

1. During the pendency of the proceedings and upon the receipt of a written request from the complainant and/or if the IC deems fit, the IC can recommend to the Management by way of an interim order, interim relief keeping in mind the nature and gravity of the misdemeanour. Annexure B.

Inquiry Report And Action

1. Upon completion of inquiry proceedings, the IC within a period of 10 working days shall provide its decision i.e. guilty or not guilty.
2. If it is found that the Respondent is guilty then the IC shall make recommendations to the Management for further action against the Respondent. Annexure B.

Malicious Complaints

- 1.

Policy Document	Policies	Rev. No. 01
Doc. No. RENAISSANCE GLOBAL LTD-001		Date: 02-03-2026

1. Upon the completion of a detailed inquiry, if the IC concludes that the complainant and/or witness has malicious intent or knows it to be false or that the documents presented were either false or misleading, the IC shall take action against the complainant. Annexure B.
2. The malicious intent on the part of the complainant and/or witness shall be established only after an independent inquiry is conducted.
3. Provided, however, mere inability to substantiate the complaint or provide adequate proof shall not attract any action against the complainant and/or witness.

Appeal

1. Any party who is aggrieved by the order passed by the IC can file an appeal before the Industrial tribunal/Labour Officer (district level) within a period of 90 days of the passing of the order

Confidentiality

1. All the complaints received under this Policy shall be kept in strictest confidence by the IC members and the Management.
2. Details of the complainant, names of witnesses or any documents shall not be disclosed to any other person in the Organisation, any third party, the general public, the press or the media.
3. If the complainant so desires then the identity of the complainant shall be kept secret at all times.
4. No detrimental action shall be taken against any witness to the proceedings unless it is proven upon due inquiry that such witness had given false statements with either malicious intent or knowing it to be false.
5. No person who is aware of a complaint and inquiry proceedings, whether a party or not, shall disclose the details of the complaint to any other person in the Organisation, any third party, the general public, the press or the media.
6. Any person who is found guilty of violating these provisions related to confidentiality may be terminated by the Organisation with immediate effect without any compensation whatsoever.
7. Information may be disseminated regarding justice to aggrieved persons under this Policy without disclosing the name, address, identity, or any other particulars leading to the identification of the persons involved.
8. The Organisation shall recover a sum of Rs. 5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand Only) as a penalty from any person who violates the confidentiality obligation under this Policy, in addition to other disciplinary actions.

Review and Updates:

This policy will be reviewed periodically to ensure compliance with legal requirements and best practices. Changes will be communicated to all employees.

Renaissance Global Ltd Conflict Minerals Policy

Renaissance Jewellery Limited is fully committed to the responsible sourcing of our products and the respect of human rights, and we expect the same from our suppliers around the world. We continually strive to assure our customers, employees, investors, and other stakeholders that our supply chain avoids action that may directly or indirectly finance armed conflict and serious human rights violations around the world including the Democratic Republic of Congo and its adjoining countries.

RGL has been at the forefront of responsible sourcing in the diamond and jewelry supply chain and is a certified member of the Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC), an organization that is committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices throughout the jewelry supply chain. As an active participant, we fully support the RJC's membership Code of Practices and Chain of Custody standards.

RGL has also been active in cross-sector coalitions and working groups to ensure that companies respect human rights and avoid contributing to armed conflict. RGL supports the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) due diligence guidelines supplement for gold, the London Bullion Market Association (LBMA) Responsible Gold Guidance, and the Dodd Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, Section 1502, relating to our supplies of gold.

To comply with the conflict-free sourcing requirements:

RGL requires and audits statements from our vendors that gold they are providing is obtained from verifiable sources that can be audited and traced back to LBMA. The review and substantiation of these claims will take place from time to time as RGL renews its certification with RJC along with the provenance Bolt on for conflict free metals.

1. RGL does not deal in Tantalum, Tungsten or Tin.
2. RGL requires its vendors provide a statement verifying same as above and to maintain accurate records that can be audited upon request. If a seller supplies, will supply or expects to supply any goods to RGL that contain any amount of any metal (i.e. silver, steel, platinum, gold, tin, tantalum, tungsten, etc.), Seller will include the warranty statement on all invoices and supporting documentation such as delivery notes
3. If Seller delivers goods without the proper warranty statement documentation, the product will either be held until the proper documentation is obtained, or be returned to Seller at Seller's sole cost and expense, such determination to be made by RGL. The warranty statement will be similar to:

The seller warrants that any products containing gold, tin, tungsten or tantalum have been supplied in compliance with the accepted sourcing protocols as governed by the RJC and compliant with Dodd-Frank regulations.
